In light of the temporary government shutdown, which lasted one business day, the Court will extend the parties' deadline to file their Joint Status Report from February 7, 2018 until FEBRUARY 8, 2018. The parties represent that Defendant has not made any productions of records since the parties filed their last Joint Status Report on March 13, 2018. 05/03/2018		MINUTE ORDER. The Court is in receipt of the parties' 17 Joint Status Report. On April 24, 2018, the parties filed a Joint Status Report in which they represented that Defendant had not made any productions of records since the parties filed their last Joint Status Report on March 13, 2018. The parties are apparently in the process of meeting and conferring about a number of issues related to Defendant's search for and production of responsive records. Plaintiff has propounded several questions to Defendant, in large part requesting that Defendant agree to concrete schedules for completing the search for and production of various categories of documents. The parties proposed that they file another Joint Status Report by May 2, 2018, and the Court ordered them to do so. The Court is now in receipt of that Joint Status Report, in which the parties indicate that they need additional time to confer about these issues due to an emergency leave taken by agency counsel. Accordingly, the parties are again ORDERED to MEET AND CONFER to attempt to reach a mutually agreeable solution to the various issues raised by Plaintiff, and file a further Joint Status Report by no later than MAY 9, 2018. The report provides updates on the status of Defendant's search, review and production of documents responsive to Plaintiff's FOIA requests. The parties propose filing a further joint status report by June 11, 2018, updating the Court on the status of Defendant's searches and reviews. Plaintiff additionally requests that the Court order Defendant to produce certain records by dates certain in June and July, 2018. 		deadlines can reasonably be met. The Court will not order Defendant to adhere to any particular deadlines at this point. The parties shall file a further Joint Status Report by no later than JUNE 11, 2018. In that report, Defendant shall propose deadlines for its production of records responsive to Plaintiff's requests. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 5/16/2018. (lcckk3) (Entered: 05/16/2018)
